Mission: The Muhlenberg Community Dance Center (MCDC) Program for Young Dancers offers a safe and supportive environment in which students can explore their creative and physical potential under the guidance of an enthusiastic and knowledgeable teaching staff. Taught in the state-of-the-art dance studios of Muhlenberg College, the curriculum gives students flexibility to design their own course of study, exploring a wide range of dance styles according to their interests. The faculty focuses on providing developmentally age-appropriate dance education for all levels, carrying a child from the earliest creative movement experience through pre-professional work. Emphasis is placed on educating the whole child, providing not only physical training and dance technique, but also a cross-curricular approach to creative expression, with a focus on developing self-confidence and a lifelong appreciation for the creative arts.

Classes are taught by professional dance instructors and qualified Muhlenberg College dance majors who are pursuing dance education. For teacher bios, visit muhlenberg.edu/mcdc.

What should I wear?
Creative Movement students should wear comfortable clothing that does not inhibit them from moving freely and safely; shoes are not required. Ballet and pointe classes require black leotard, pink tights, and ballet slippers. All other classes require any color leotard, black jazz pants/shorts, and appropriate footwear (jazz or tap shoes, bare feet).

Are there any discounts available?
Muhlenberg College students receive 30% off total fees. Faculty and staff receive 15% off total fees.
Families registering more than one child receive a 10% discount off their total tuition.

Can I drop in and take a class?
Yes! The drop-in rate is $18, payable in exact change at the door.

What is the MCDC Performance Company?
The Performance Company is a two-hour class for MCDC students who are already registered for technique classes, and who are interested in learning more about the performance side of dance. The Company is a full-year commitment and also includes outside classes and performances.
Company work includes warm-up, dance repertory and newly choreographed material, rehearsals, and being a part of the more "grand scale" performance pieces in our shows. The Company is for ages 10 and older with director approval.

Do I need to pay the $15 registration fee?
The $15 registration fee is waived for Bring a Friend Day participants.
