

COMMENCEMENT 2010 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where do we robe?

Faculty, staff in Trexler Pavilion; students in Galleria, Baker Center for the Arts; trustees, honorary degree recipients, and hooders in Seegers Union.

Where do we robe if it rains?

Honorary degree recipients, hooders, the platform party and trustees will robe in Seegers Union, be transported via shuttle to Memorial Hall, and gather in Room 128 for the procession. Faculty and staff will robe in the wrestling room, and students will robe in 2/3 of the Field House. When the group processes, it starts in the solar corridor and then processes ONCE around the entire gymnasium.

What happens if it rains?

A decision is made by 6:00 a.m. for the Commencement ceremony. Commencement will be held in Memorial Hall, if indoors. If an electrical storm occurs in the middle of the ceremony, graduates will be instructed to move to Memorial Hall where they will receive their diplomas. In the event of rain, closed circuit television viewing will be available in the lobby of Seegers Union (on the plasma screen), in the Red Door located on the lower level of Seegers Union, in the classrooms of Moyer Hall, and in the Lithgow Science Auditorium in Trumbower Hall.
