
MUHLENBERG COLLEGE RELIGIOUS RESOURCE GUIDE

Religious Life is an important part of the Muhlenberg College community. Campus ministries at Muhlenberg offer an array of opportunities for religious services, text studies, social events, and service in the Lehigh Valley and beyond. Many students find that on-campus offerings satisfy their religious and spiritual needs. Others find that supplementing their on-campus experiences with off-campus religious communities suits them best.

This Religious Resource Guide has been created to provide information about the communities that relate to the wide selection of religious traditions in the Lehigh Valley. If you would like information about a congregation, please call them or consult their website as listed. This is not a complete list of religions, or congregations, in the area; only the ones nearest to campus are listed. If you are looking for a particular congregation or faith tradition and do not see it listed here, please contact a chaplain for assistance.

Finally, if you need transportation to a congregation, call the number listed. Congregations are usually thrilled to welcome young people and will try their best to arrange transportation from within their membership. In some cases the College Chaplain's office can assist with transportation.
