

The Institute for Jewish-Christian Understanding of Muhlenberg College and the Jewish Federation of the Lehigh Valley present the

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
YOUTH & PREJUDICE:
Reducing Hatred
Lessons of the Holocaust

Featuring the world premier of the one-act play Persistence

Tuesday, December 1 or Wednesday, December 2, 2009

Empie Theater, Baker Center for the Arts
Muhlenberg College
2400 Chew Street, Allentown, PA

- Holocaust slide presentation by a Muhlenberg College Sophomore
- Interactive breakout sessions with Muhlenberg students and community educators
- Discussion with Holocaust survivor or second generation survivor
- Keynote speaker

Theatrical presentation – Persistence a new play by Brendon Votipka
Featuring Muhlenberg College student actors

Political events indicate the commencement of the reign of Hitler and the growth of anti-Semitism in Germany in the 1930s. Rebecca, Marian and Ernst, three teenagers living in Nazi Germany, struggle to find their way while reflecting value choices that teenagers confront in every era.

Cost for the conference is $3.00 per student (students must provide their own lunches.)

- The conference begins at 9:15 a.m. and ends at 1:30 p.m. (identical program each day)
- One chaperone is required for every 25 students; there is no charge for teachers and chaperones.
- Act 48 credits available to all teachers who attend Team Building Session (Nov. 23) and/or the Conference.
