of the 20th Century” (Magic Magazine):

Eugene Burger

“The Mystery of Myself: Uncovering Magical Personas”
A Lecture for Magicians

Friday, November 15, 2002
7:00 p.m.

325 N. 23rd Street, Allentown, Pa. 18104

The Hoffman House

Muhlenberg College

Offered in conjunction with The Theory and Art of Magic, Series II

Eugene Burger is one of the most influential figures in contemporary magic. He is a master magician who has performed close-up and stage magic around the world. He is a deep thinker on the art of performing magic, having published over 15 highly-acclaimed books for magicians. He is also a celebrated teacher, inspiring magicians the world over to create more original, powerful, and entertaining magic.

This lecture is your opportunity to learn outstanding magic from Eugene Burger. He will perform and teach pieces not covered in any recent east coast appearance. He will not only teach his unique methods and handlings, but also the psychology and philosophy that make his performances so powerful.

Admission is $20 per person. To sign up, contact Dr. Lawrence Hass at 484-664-3376, or lhass@muhlenberg.edu.
