poetry, drama, song & dance in languages from around the world

presented by:

The Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures at Muhlenberg College

Tuesday, March 28, 2006
Recital Hall of the Baker Center for the Arts

On behalf of the faculty and students from the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, thank you for coming this evening. We hope you will enjoy the performances of these students as they bring together their knowledge of languages and cultures with their other fine talents. Many thanks to all of the faculty in the departments of Languages, Literatures and Cultures and Music who helped to recruit and assist the performers this evening. Warmest thanks to our accompanist, Gina Forchelli '06, to Dining Services for the international desserts after this evening's performances, and to Andrew Woodward, Language Learning Center Assistant. We are especially grateful to Provost Marjorie Hass for her generous support of this program.
