Three Muhlenberg students, seniors Adam Elwood and Isaac Shimsky-Agosto, and sophomore Elizaveta Shmakova, presented their Russian Studies CUE research papers at the national Europe: East & West Undergraduate Research Symposium at the University of Pittsburgh on April 1.

PANEL 1 – THE BALTIC STATES

“The Integration of Russian Minority Populations in the Post-Soviet Baltic States”: Isaac Shimsky-Agosto ‘16, Muhlenberg College

PANEL 5 – RUSSIAN HEALTH

“Impact of Cultural Beliefs Held by Former USSR Citizens on the Perception of Modern Medical Care”: Adam Elwood ‘16, Muhlenberg College

“Understanding the Nature and Causes of Cardiovascular Disease in Russia”: Elizaveta Shmakova ‘18, Muhlenberg College