Assignment 4

Name: ______

1. What river flows through St. Petersburg, and into which body of water does it empty?
____________________________________________________________________

2. Why was St. Petersburg constructed?
____________________________________________________________________

3. Which island was intended as Peter the Great's 'showcase'?
____________________________________________________________________

4. What was the first stone structure/complex in St. Petersburg?
____________________________________________________________________

5. Based on the Introduction to "The Bronze Horseman," describe the place where Peter decided to build a new city. Who lived there?
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

6. Explain the lines:

From off the heavens, twilight hastes to welcome twilight, scarecely giving

Night half an hour ....