Service Learning Reports (2-3 pages) will be accepted from Tuesday, November 25 until 4 p.m. on Tuesday, December 2, in my mailbox. Please write your report as a diary entry; feel free to use “I.” Although it’s creative writing assignment, please critically evaluate your experience and include informative details: place/agency; number of times attended; type of service; people met; what worked; what didn’t work; what you liked; what you didn’t like; lessons learned; observations, similarities/differences with characters/situations presented in books, stories, articles, and films discussed in class. Would you like to continue community service next semester? In the future? Do you believe in making a difference? The questions listed above are designed to guide your writing rather than to limit it. This is not a survey, thus you may and should include other things, as you see fit.

Group Presentations –Tuesday, Dec. 2 and Thursday, Dec. 4. At least 8 students will present each day. Please plan accordingly and choose a day for your presentation.

Final research papers (5-7 pages) will be accepted starting Friday, December 5, until 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 9, in my mailbox. Due to the length of this assignment, no final paper will be accepted electronically, as an attachment.
